Submission of extended abstracts: July 20, 2014

Notification of acceptance: July 29, 2014

Submission of the source files of camera ready extended abstracts to American Institute of Physics (AIP Conference Proceedings): August 1, 2014 – Final Date

Submission of full papers for consideration for publication in the journals: September 30, 2014 - January 31, 2015

Special awards for excellence in Numerical Analysis and Applied Mathematics

The work of young scientists has a special place in the ICNAAM. The Conference encourages and promotes excellence of young scientists. Four prizes will be awarded to graduate students or scientists with a recently completed PhD, in the areas:

- Numerical Analysis
- Applied Mathematics

Prize-winning work will be widely publicized and promoted by the Conference. In order for someone to participate:
1. He/she must declare his participation at the desk of the Conference
2. He/she must declare if he/she is a PhD student or is a Post-doc (in this case he/she must have presented his/her PhD 3 or 4 years ago at most)
3. He/she must present his/her paper at the Conference
4. He/she must send his/her MSc Thesis and/or PhD Thesis

The Conference on Mathematics and its Applications-2014 (CMA-2014) is broad-based spanning Algebra, Analysis, Discrete Mathematics, and Inverse Problems and Imaging. The aim is to highlight the latest advances in different areas of mathematics and emphasis their applications to other disciplines. The conference will gather renowned scholars in mathematics from around the world and provide a forum to exchange ideas and discuss research findings, as well as to form new inter-disciplinary connections among the participants. As part of the Arabic hospitality, the organizers of the conference will provide free shared accommodation for any non-local participant contributing a talk. The shared accommodation will be with only one other participant. The hospitality extends for a maximum of 5 nights starting Thursday November 13, 2014.

If you choose not to take advantage of this offer, then you must arrange your accommodation and bear the expense yourself with no compensation from the organizers. Any stay after Monday November 17, 2014 is at the expense of the participant.

The organizers will provide lunch for all participants, including registered attendees without presentations, for three days, and invite all to the Conference gala dinner.

All participants must complete the online registration. There is a compulsory registration fee. Payment of fee has to be made in cash at the registration desk on Friday November 14, 2014. Acceptable currencies for payment are the Kuwaiti Dinar (KD), EURO, or US Dollar.

The fee covers the reception ceremony, all coffee breaks, lunch for 3 days, the conference gala dinner, and (for any non-local participant who has been approved to give a contributed talk) 5 nights shared accommodation. Your accommodation (if applicable) will be cancelled, and your participation will be denied for nonpayment.

The schedule of payment is as follows:
- KD 35 for local participants
- KD 50 ($200 or 150 EURO) for participants from outside Kuwait

You must pay in exact change. No denomination less than $100 bill is acceptable. No denomination less than 50 EURO bill is acceptable.
Conference on Mathematics and its Applications-2014 (CMA2014) is an excellent opportunity for researchers in mathematics or closely related disciplines to share their research with peers working on similar topics or in similar fields. It will allow participants to share ideas, get feedback on work in progress, and make connections. Presenters will each make a 20-minute presentation followed by 5 minutes of questions and answers.

CMA2014 invites proposals for contributed talks. Proposals should be related to the conference themes. Preference will be given to contributions which include both theoretical advances and novel applications. A preliminary one-page abstract of the talk is due by July 17, 2014. The abstract must include the title of the presentation, full name and affiliation of each author, as well as email addresses. The presenter will be informed of the decision regarding relevance or suitability of the proposed talk with respect to the conference by September 11, 2014.

CNIO Undergraduate Summer Session
Madrid, Spain

Scholarship / Financial aid: up to 12 vacancies (travel expenses and meals covered)
Date: June 23-August 14, 2014
Deadline: 27 April 2014
Open to: undergraduate students of any nationality who are in their final two years of studies in the Life Sciences or related subjects

The Spanish National Cancer Research Centre (CNIO) announces up to 12 vacancies for undergraduate students to work in a lab at the CNIO over the summer.
The programme runs from June 23 to August 14, 2014, and is open to undergraduate students of any nationality who are in their final two years of studies in the Life Science or related subjects (e.g. Biology, Biomedicine, Biochemistry, Pharmacology, Bioinformatics). Travel expenses and meals at the CNIO cafeteria will be covered for summer training programme students during their stay at the centre.
Each student will be matched with a specific laboratory based on the student’s interest and background. The student will be working under the supervision of the group/unit leader or a member of the research group. The participants will attend a series of seminars given by faculty members and researchers from the CNIO. Students will be required to present the results of their summer projects in a special session to be held at the end of the programme.

Fellowships will be awarded on a competitive basis taking into consideration the student’s academic record and their letter of motivation.

Melbourne International Research Scholarships (MIRS) in Australia, 2014

The Melbourne International Research Scholarships (MIRS) are awarded to international students who wish to undertake graduate research degree studies (e.g. master’s by research, PhD or other research doctorate) at the University of Melbourne. Each year the University offers about 200 new Melbourne Research Scholarships (MRSs), of which about 150 are normally awarded to international students as MIRSs. Selection will be based on the eligibility criteria and academic merit. The application deadline is 31st May 2014.

Study Subject(s): Scholarships are provided to learn any of the course offered by the University of Melbourne.

Course Level: Scholarships are awarded for students wishing to undertake graduate research degree studies at the University of Melbourne.

Scholarship Provider: University of Melbourne, Australia

Scholarship can be taken at: Australia

Eligibility:
- To be considered for MIRS, applicants need to apply for scholarship and candidature in a graduate research degree course (e.g. masters by research, PhD or other research doctorate) at the University of Melbourne.
- The academic requirements to be considered for the graduate research scholarships are the same as those that apply to entry for the PhD, and these requirements apply even if a scholarship is sought to undertake a master’s by research. The key academic requirements that applicants must meet are:
  - Completion of tertiary studies that are at least equivalent to a four-year honours degree at Australian University, and
  - Applicants normally need to have completed a research project/component as part of their tertiary studies that accounts for at least 25% of their year’s work at 4th year or masters level.
- First Class Honours (ie. H1) results are required to be competitive.
- Both commencing and currently enrolled international research higher degree students may apply.

Scholarship Open for International Students: International students can apply for these scholarships.

Scholarship Description: The Melbourne International Research Scholarships (MIRS) is awarded to international students wishing to undertake graduate research degree studies at the University of Melbourne. MIRSs are funded by the University with each faculty having a limited number to award.

Number of award(s): Each year the University offers about 200 new Melbourne Research Scholarships (MRSs), of which about 150 are normally awarded to international students as MIRSs.
Duration of award(s): MRSs/MIRSs can be held from the second year of the course onwards (i.e. for the PhD component only) and can be held for up to 3 years (or 3.5 years if an extension is approved) as for other PhDs and research doctorates.

What does it cover?
Benefits provided by the MIRS include:
- a living allowance of $24,653 per annum (2013 rate)
- a Relocation Grant of $2,000 awarded to students who are moving from interstate in order to study at the University of Melbourne or $3,000 awarded to those who are moving from overseas
- a Thesis Allowance of up to $420 (2013 rate) for masters by research and up to $840 (2013 rate) for PhD and other doctorate by research candidates, and
- paid sick, maternity and parenting leave.

Selection Criteria: Selection will be based on the eligibility criteria and academic merit.

Notification: Applicants will be advised via email as soon as an outcome of their scholarship application is determined.

How to Apply: The mode of applying is online.

The application deadline is 31st May 2014 and applicants will receive a RHD scholarship outcome before 31 July 2014.

Scholarship Application Deadline: 31st May 2014.

School of Law, Trinity College is offering Law scholarship for EU and Non-EU graduate students undertaking studies in any available LL.M programmes in 2014-2015. This Scholarship is available to new entrants for admission in September 2014. The value of the Scholarship is €8,600. Applications are assessed competitively with the sole criteria for the grant of the scholarship being the proven academic merit of the candidate.

Course Level: Scholarship is available for pursuing master degree.

Scholarship Provider: School of Law, Trinity College.

Scholarship can be taken at: Ireland

Eligibility: The Law School Alumni Scholarship is open to EU and Non-EU graduate students undertaking studies on one of our four LL.M degrees in 2014-2015. It is offered subject to the following conditions:
- The holder must engage in full-time study and must register for one LL.M degree at the Law School in academic year 2014-2015;
- The holder is required to engage in relevant academic activities as determined by the LL.M Course Director;
- The holder must not be a simultaneous holder of other grants or funding, Government of Ireland or other awards (or any other awards with a similar monetary value).

Scholarship Open for International Students: International students (EU and Non-EU) can apply for this Law scholarship.

Scholarship Description: The Law School is delighted to announce the establishment of the Law School Alumni Scholarship. This scholarship is funded by generous donations from Alumni of the School of Law, Trinity College. This scholarship seeks to recognise the quality of entrants to our LL.M programmes and the on-going contribution of LL.M students to our Law School. It aims to support and develop gifted postgraduate taught students. This Scholarship is available to new entrants (EU and Non-EU) to any of our four LL.M degrees, for admission in September 2014. For the 2014-2015 academic years it will be assumed that all applicants to the LLM would wish to be considered for this scholarship, so all applications will be considered in this regard.

Number of award(s): One scholarship is offered.

What does it cover? The value of the Scholarship is €8,600 contribution towards LL.M tuition fees (EU or Non-EU) in academic year 2014-2015. This contribution is payable directly by the Law School to Student Finance.

Selection Criteria: Applications are assessed competitively with the sole criteria for the grant of the scholarship being the proven academic merit of the candidate. It is accepted, however, that very many candidates with exceptional qualifications apply annually to the programme. Thus the decision as to the recipient of the scholarship (which is made at school level) is at the exclusive discretion of the LL.M Sub-Committee.

Online Application:
- Applicants will be automatically considered when completing the online application.
- Applicants must complete the application process by 31st May 2014, providing all required documentation
- In general, applicants must hold (and have officially accepted) an Unconditional offer by 31st July 2014. In exceptional cases, the Law School reserves the right to extend this deadline in circumstances where the successful candidate has not received his or her final degree result from the awarding institution by this deadline and his or her offer to study on the LL.M programme is conditional on such result being available.

CFA Access Scholarships for International Students, 2015

Scholarship Application Deadline: 15 September 2014.

CFA Institute is offering a needs-based scholarship program for international students. Access scholarships are to pursue the CFA programme, which is organized into three levels. Access awards can be used for any Program level (I, II or III). Over 2,600 Scholarships are available world-wide. Access awards allow recipients to waive the enrollment fee and pay a reduced registration fee of $250 USD with the CFA Program eBook.

Study Subject (s): Scholarships are awarded to learn any of the courses offered by the Institute.

Course Level: Scholarships are available to pursue the CFA programme, which is organized into three levels. Access awards can be used for any Program level (I, II or III).

Scholarship Provider: The CFA Institute

Scholarship can be taken at: The Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam held in more than 180 locations around the world.

Eligibility: Scholarship candidates may be new or existing candidates in the CFA Program. There is no minimum or maximum income or asset level for Scholarship candidates.

-Candidates are ineligible if their current employer provides financial assistance for participation in the CFA Program.

-Candidates can only receive one Access Scholarship per calendar year. Further, a candidate may only receive one scholarship per exam, so if a candidate applies for both an Access and an Awareness Scholarship, and receives an award, the remaining application will be void.

Scholarship Open for International Students: International Students can apply for these CFA Access Scholarships.

Scholarship Description: The CFA Institute Access Scholarship Program (“Program”) is designed to make CFA Institute programs more available to individuals who may not be able to afford the full program fees. (“Access Scholarships”). Access Scholarship provides a need-based scholarship opportunity for those unable to afford the full price of the CFA Program enrollment and registration fees. In collaboration with our member societies around the world, Access Scholarships are being awarded beginning with the 2013 exam cycle.

Number of award(s): Over 2,600 CFA Access Scholarships are available worldwide.

What does it cover? CFA Access Scholarships provide a need-based scholarship opportunity for those unable to afford the full price of the CFA Program enrollment and registration fees. Access awards allow recipients to waive the enrollment fee and pay a reduced registration fee of $250 USD with the CFA Program eBook (Scholarship candidates are responsible for any additional costs for substituting or adding the print option, including curriculum and shipping costs plus any applicable taxes and import duties).

Selection Criteria: Applications will be reviewed by CFA Institute and/or a local CFA Institute Member Society in the Scholarship Candidate’s geographic area. While financial need will be strongly considered, awards may be made based on a combination of factors, including financial need; the academic, professional or other accomplishments of the candidate; obstacles overcome by the candidate; contributions to the local community; the candidate’s interest in pursuing the CFA charter; and other personal characteristics that indicate the individual is a strong candidate to receive an Access Scholarship and become a CFA charter holder. Societies will have access to all data submitted in the Application. Further, Societies may elect to request additional information from Candidates, or conduct reference checks or personal interviews.

How to Apply: The mode of applying is online.
